APOLLO

Apollo is a striking cremello stud colt that is impossible to overlook, combining exceptional pedigree with eye-catching chrome that will turn heads wherever he goes. Sired by RHR Metallic Cowboy, who is actively being ridden by Melody throughout the breeding season, and backed by one of the sweetest mares on the ranch, Apollo offers the kind of mind and trainability every horseman appreciates. With elite bloodlines tracing to CD Olena and Metallic Cat, he is bred to be athletic, naturally cowy, and highly versatile. Already showing a curious, confident personality, Apollo has all the ingredients to develop into a standout performance horse whether your goals are ranch work, cutting, cow horse, or versatility events. If you're looking for a colt with color, pedigree, ability, and a bright future, Apollo is an outstanding prospect.

$10,000

ATLAS

Atlas is a big, bold blue roan stud colt (gelding clause applies) whose name couldn't be more fitting. Named after the Titan known for his incredible strength and endurance, Atlas is bred to be the kind of horse you can depend on for just about anything. Friendly, curious, and built to be a powerhouse, he combines the proven Hancock genetics of his dam, RHR Sweet Blue Te, with the athleticism, grit, and versatility of his sire, Gun. Whether your plans include the rodeo arena, long days checking cattle, mountain trails, or simply owning an honest, all-around ranch horse, Atlas has the pedigree and disposition to excel. He has the substance, mind, and versatility to become the kind of partner that works hard all week and still has plenty left in the tank for weekend adventures. If you're looking for a colt with strength, heart, and unlimited potential, Atlas deserves a serious look.

$6,000

AYLIN

Aylin is a gorgeous blue roan filly with a personality that's just as beautiful as her color. Sweet-natured and always searching for a scratch, she's the kind of filly that wants to be your friend first. Sired by Survivor, a stallion admired for his exceptional mind, smooth movement, and those unmistakably adorable little ears, and out of Pebble, our gentle, curious, big-boned mare, Aylin has all the ingredients to become an outstanding partner. She's built with substance, carries herself with style, and already has the kind of eye-catching "peach bum" that'll have people taking a second look. Whether your dreams include ranch riding, trail adventures, versatility events, or simply owning a beautiful, dependable horse that can do a little bit of everything, Aylin has the breeding, disposition, and athleticism to get you there—all while looking good doing it.

$5,000

DIPPER

$10,000

Dipper is a handsome bay stud colt (gelding clause applies) whose name perfectly reflects the direction he's headed—a bright, dependable star with a future that's hard to miss. Just like the constellation that has guided travelers for generations, Dipper is the kind of colt you can see becoming a trusted partner wherever the trail leads. Sired by RHR Metallic Cowboy, whose pedigree traces back to Metallic Cat, and out of a mare carrying the speed and versatility of Frenchmans Guy, Dipper offers an exceptional blend of cow sense, athleticism, and all-around ability. His sire is a true testament to trainability, regularly ridden by the ranch crew throughout the breeding season in clinics, lessons, and on the ranch, proving that a breeding stallion can also be a gentle, willing, and smooth-moving partner. Dipper is already following in those footsteps with his curious nature, love of scratches, and people-first attitude, while his friendly, big-boned dam has passed along the substance and durability to match his talent. Whether your goals lie in the performance arena, ranch work, or an all-around versatile horse, Dipper has all the ingredients to become something truly special.

EMBER

Ember may be a petite filly now, but like the glowing ember she's named after, she has all the potential to ignite into something extraordinary. This pretty little filly is out of Tikka, with Playgun in her background that is known for cow horse heritage, and sired by Gun, combining athleticism, grit, and versatility into one exciting package. Ember already floats across the pasture with a graceful stride, and watching her roll back, turn, and accelerate while playing is enough to make any horse person stop and take notice. She will have the cow sense, quick feet, and just the right amount of spunk to excel as a performance prospect, while still carrying the kind of mind and athletic ability that will make her a fun, versatile partner. If you're looking for a filly with natural talent, style, and a bright future ahead of her, Ember is ready to fan that spark into something special.

FLAIR

$3,500

Flare is a filly that lives up to her name—bright, bold, and impossible to ignore. She carries just the right amount of fire, with an athletic presence and confident way of moving that suggests she's destined to shine wherever her future takes her. Sired by Maverick, one of the last opportunities to own a foal from our beloved gentle giant, and out of our soggy, big-hipped chestnut mare Lace, Flare combines substance with athleticism in a package that's built to last. Her pedigree traces back to proven Te N Te and Hancock bloodlines, giving her the foundation for cow sense, ranch versatility, rodeo ability, and the durability to handle a full day's work. With her big bone, willing attitude, and natural athleticism, Flare has all the makings of the kind of horse that can sort cattle one day, head into the mountains the next, and still turn heads wherever she goes. If you're looking for an all-around versatile partner with heart, grit, and a little extra spark, Flare is ready to light the way.

HALLEY

Halley is a stunning blue roan filly whose future is every bit as bright as the comet she's named after. Like Halley's Comet, she has the kind of presence that makes people stop, take notice, and remember her long after she's gone by. This big, solid filly is already showing the substance everyone loves, complete with a standout "peach bum" and the bone to become a durable, versatile partner. Out of McBride, one of the signature foundation mares of Rocking Heart Ranch, and sired by the ever-popular Survivor, known for his exceptional mind, athletic movement, and unmistakable good looks, Halley offers the complete package. Friendly, curious, and eager to interact, she has the kind of disposition that makes training enjoyable and ownership rewarding. Whether your dreams include working cattle, exploring mountain trails, competing in extreme cowboy races, or spending weekends in the roping pen, Halley has the pedigree, build, and mindset to excel. This is the kind of filly that doesn't come along every day—one whose potential shines as brightly as her name suggests.

$5,000

LUNA

$4,000

Luna may be petite in size, but like the moon she's named after, she has a quiet presence that's impossible to overlook. This little powerhouse is already showing the athletic ability and balance that make exceptional performance horses, effortlessly moving with speed and turning on a dime as she plays through the pasture. Sired by Gun, she inherits athleticism, eye-catching good looks, and the kind of versatility that can take her in any direction. Her dam, Velma, contributes proven cow-bred genetics, a beautiful dapple grey color, and the sweet, willing disposition that makes a horse a joy to own and train. Luna is the perfect blend of refinement, agility, and heart, making her an exciting prospect for anyone looking for a horse that can excel in the performance arena while remaining an honest, enjoyable partner. Don't let her size fool you—this little filly has all the talent and determination to make a big impression.

TBD

North is a striking black stud colt (gelding clause applies) named after the North Star—a symbol of strength, dependability, and finding your way. It's a fitting name for a colt we believe has all the qualities to become the kind of horse people rely on for years to come. Sired by Survivor and out of Lucky Blue Lass, North is backed by a pedigree that blends run, cow, and ranch bloodlines with proven versatility. His siblings have gone on to become exceptional partners in a variety of roles, from the performance arena and working ranch to mountain trails and even equine therapy, a true testament to the minds and dispositions consistently produced by this cross. North is already showing the quiet confidence, athleticism, and willing nature that suggest he'll follow the same path. Whether his future holds cattle work, roping, ranch riding, trail adventures, or becoming a trusted family horse, he has all the ingredients to excel. In fact, Melody is seriously considering keeping North as part of the Rocking Heart Ranch program, and he'll only be available if the right partner comes along who recognizes just how special he is.

ORION

$6,000

Orion is a breathtaking grulla filly whose future shines as brightly as the constellation she's named after. Just like Orion, one of the most recognizable sights in the night sky, this filly has a presence that's impossible to miss. From her striking grulla color and primitive tiger stripes to her balanced build and effortless movement, Orion turns heads the moment she steps into view. Sired by Maverick, carrying the proven Otoe and Doc bloodlines, and out of Jaz Frost Girl who was sired by Jaz Poco Goldun Blu, she combines generations of athleticism, cow sense, and ranch versatility into one exceptional package. Watching her float across the pasture is impressive enough, but when she accelerates and changes direction with ease, her natural talent becomes undeniable. Whether your ambitions lie in the roping pen, the ranch, the performance arena, or simply owning a versatile horse that can excel in just about anything you ask of her, Orion has the pedigree, athleticism, and eye appeal to get you there. This is the kind of filly that will not only perform but do it with style, making her a standout wherever she goes.

PHOENIX

$8,000

Phoenix is a flashy buckskin stud colt (gelding clause applies) whose future is every bit as promising as the legendary bird he's named after. Symbolizing resilience, strength, and rising to greatness, Phoenix has all the ingredients to become a horse that exceeds expectations. Out of Dreamer, one of our top-producing mares known for passing on speed, style, and athletic offspring now succeeding in barrels and roping, and sired by Gun, who contributes proven Hancock cow sense, substance, and versatility, Phoenix is bred to do it all. This colt is built with the kind of balance, athleticism, and willing mind that make exceptional all-around horses. We can easily envision him as a standout high school rodeo partner in a few short years, confidently running barrels one weekend, heading to a gymkhana the next, and then packing the family through the mountains on a trail ride. Whether your dreams involve the rodeo arena, ranch work, or raising a dependable family horse with the talent to excel wherever you point him, Phoenix has the pedigree, ability, and presence to make those dreams a reality.

SOL

$5,000

Sol is a handsome black stud colt (gelding clause applies) whose name means "sun"—a fitting choice for a colt with the kind of presence and potential to brighten any program. While his sleek black coat catches your eye, it's his substance, athleticism, and inquisitive nature that truly set him apart. Sol is one of the last progeny of our beloved stallion Maverick, making him a special opportunity to own a piece of a bloodline that has consistently produced kind, capable, and versatile horses. His siblings are proving themselves in a wide range of disciplines, from all-around versatility and working equitation to speed events, demonstrating the athletic ability and trainable minds this cross is known for. Built as a soggy, substantial colt with plenty of bone and a naturally curious personality, Sol has all the makings of a dependable partner. Whether you envision him in the roping pen, spending long days in the mountains hunting or trail riding, or simply enjoying a horse that can confidently do a little bit of everything, Sol has the pedigree, disposition, and versatility to get you there. Opportunities to own one of Maverick's final offspring are becoming increasingly rare, making this colt one worth serious consideration.

SPARK

$6,500

Spark is a fancy bay roan stud colt (gelding clause applies) who lives up to his name with a natural charisma that's impossible to ignore. Like the first spark that ignites something great, this colt has all the ingredients to develop into an exceptional performance partner. With cow-bred bloodlines tracing back to the legendary Peppy San Badger, Spark is bred with the instinct, athleticism, and intelligence that serious cattle horse enthusiasts appreciate. His sire, Gun, contributes proven Hancock substance, versatility, and athletic ability, while his dam, Reba, may be one of our smaller mares, but she consistently passes along good bone, durability, and a willing disposition. Spark is already showing off a powerful hip, balanced build, and confident personality that suggest a bright future. Whether your goals are ranch horse versatility, working cattle, sorting, or finding that "next-level" horse to help you advance your horsemanship, Spark has the pedigree, presence, and natural talent to get you there. This is the kind of colt that has the potential to grow into a horse you'll be proud to swing a leg over, no matter where the day takes you.

STAR

$6,000

Star is a handsome sorrel stud colt (gelding clause applies) who is already shining bright with all the qualities of a future standout. True to his name, Star has the kind of presence that naturally draws your attention and the pedigree to back it up. Out of our foundational mare Molly, whose bloodlines trace back to the legendary Playgun, and sired by the ever-popular Survivor, Star combines proven cow horse genetics with a kind, willing disposition, exceptional ranch sense, and of course, Survivor's signature adorable ears. This cross is designed to produce horses that are athletic, trainable, and versatile enough to excel wherever they're pointed. Whether your ambitions include the ranch, the roping pen, ranch horse versatility, trail riding, or simply owning a dependable partner with a great mind, Star has the foundation to become an exceptional all-around horse. With his balanced build, gentle nature, and limitless potential, he's ready to grow into the kind of partner you'll be proud to own for years to come.

STELLA

Stella is a striking red roan filly whose name means "star," and she's already proving she's destined to shine in our breeding program. Big, soggy, and built just like her outstanding dam, Stella has the kind of substance, bone, and presence that we work hard to produce. Sired by Survivor, she adds his exceptional mind, athletic movement, and quiet disposition to a maternal line known for its ranch and rope horse ability. Curious, tall, and full of personality, Stella is developing into the kind of mare we believe will leave a lasting mark on Rocking Heart Ranch for years to come. With her dam entering the later years of her breeding career, we've made the decision to retain Stella as a future cornerstone broodmare, ensuring these proven genetics continue for the next generation. While we look forward to watching her grow into a beautiful young mare, Stella is not for sale

NFS

VEGA

$8,000

Vega is a big, strapping grullo roan stud colt (gelding clause applies) whose name is inspired by one of the brightest stars in the night sky—and he's already proving he's impossible to overlook. As the friendliest colt in this year's foal crop, Vega is always the first to wander over looking for scratches and attention, making friends with everyone he meets. Behind that sweet personality is a powerhouse of a prospect. One look at his massive hip and substantial build tells you this colt was made to work. Whether it's pulling bulls out of the pasture, stopping hard in the roping pen, heading steers, climbing mountains on a backcountry hunt, or putting in long days on the ranch, Vega has the strength, athleticism, and durability to do it all. Out of Moon, a big, soggy mare known for her gentle disposition and solid build, and sired by Gun, who consistently passes on good looks, athletic ability, and just the right amount of grit, Vega offers the complete package. If you're looking for a versatile horse with the mind to be your partner and the build to handle whatever job is in front of him, Vega is a colt you'll want to keep your eye on.
